

CUPID GIRL MOVES IN!

Telly beauty quits the big smoke to return to Scotland.

Michelle Watt, 28, daughter of boxing legend Jim Watt wants to boost her career north of the border after becoming a hit with viewers on STV's dating show Club Cupid. But first, she'll move back in WITH HER PARENTS in Kirkintilloch in Glasgow, and former world boxing champ Jim, 57, and wife Margaret, 53, won't know what's hit them!

She said "I can't believe I'll be moving in with my parents, but it'll be great fun"

The Club Cupid and Price Drop TV presenter will leave hubby Paul, 34 – who's a sales manager for BMW Heathrow – renting in London as they've already sold up!

Michelle, above, is in talks with BBC Scotland, STV and several production firms on projects. She said "I want to build on the recent work I've done".
