

A postcard from ... Michelle Watt

TV PRESENTER Michelle Watt is playing cupid for lonely hearts as co-host of STV's new dating show, Club Cupid.

The 27-year old, from Kirkintilloch, East Dunbartonshire, is the daughter of former world boxing champion Jim Watt.

Her big break came after working on satellite shopping channel Price Drop TV. She also appeared on Junior Eurovision for ITV2 last year.

If money was no object where would you spend your perfect holiday and with whom?

It would have to be another cruise with my hubby, Paul. Complete pampering during the day, then glamorous glad-rags into the night.

How often do you go on holiday and is it important for you to get away?

Now that I live in London, I spend most of my time off in Scotland with my family, although I try to make sure I get a nice foreign holiday at least once a year, too.

Where did you go on your most recent holiday and where are you going next?

I have family out in LA and I'd booked up for two weeks for my nephew's christening out there . . . and then I landed Club Cupid so the trip was cancelled! Hopefully I'll re-book it for next year.

The trip before that was Valentine's Day in Venice. It was a bit chilly, but the romance warmed me up. Cheesy, huh?

How often do you travel through work?

I spend half the week in London and half in Scotland. I'm just focusing on the air miles!

What's your favourite city you have visited in the world?

It has to be Paris. I went with a boyfriend and came back with a fiancé! Paul proposed at the top of the Eiffel Tower.

What part of the world do you plan to visit before you die?

I love America so I think I'd like to see much more out there. I've been to Florida, Las Vegas and LA. New York is next on the agenda. It's worth the long-haul flight for the burgers alone!

Tell us about your best and worst holiday?

My worst holiday still haunts me. I was burgled in Fuerteventura! I was ill and lying in bed when I heard a noise in my room. I opened my eyes and there was a man standing with his hand in my husband's trousers stealing money (and no, my husband wasn't IN the trousers at the time!) I screamed in horror and he jumped onto the bed I was lying in, and leapt out the window right above me!

My best ever holiday was our honeymoon cruise.

What's your first holiday memory?

My dad (who assures me he loves me dearly) took me on Space Mountain, a terrifying rollercoaster at Disney World. Did I mention I was three years old at the time!?

What one thing can't you travel without?

My make-up kit!

Who is your dream travel companion?

My dad, because he usually gets me upgraded, ha ha.

Do you have any travel phobias?

My luggage going missing and me LOSING my make-up kit!

Do you have any travel souvenirs that you treasure?

Duty free???
